

Equity Beliefs:

- All children, regardless of their racial and SES differences, have the capability to learn and succeed at equally high academic levels as required by the TEKS.
- It is the responsibility of all of the adults in the district to ensure that all of the children succeed academically.
- Equitable and excellent classroom learning is the primary focus of district operations.