#GISDTECHFEST
January 30, 2018

On behalf of the Garland ISD Board of Trustees and GISD staff, welcome to the second annual TechFest! I know you will be captivated by this all-encompassing showcase of resources, programs, and technology used by our children to construct knowledge and skills. These tech opportunities supplement the tools they use to create, collaborate, and communicate with teachers and with each other, and are all on display for our families and communities.

Each of the exhibitions, demonstrations and sessions presented is geared toward providing you with information about how Garland ISD teachers shape and create critical thinkers who are prepared for college, career and life. If you have not visited a classroom lately, you may be astounded by the tools and resources available to the 21st-century students in our schools. I encourage you to interact and engage with the staff and students here this evening to learn more about the modern learning environments Garland ISD provides for its students.

There are also opportunities for families and the community to enhance their own 21st-century skills and knowledge through sessions on Hoonuit, Skyward, and more.

However you choose to spend your time while at TechFest tonight, I know that you will leave with the same feelings that I experience whenever I visit the classrooms in Garland ISD: impressed, inspired, and excited about what the future holds for our students - because of what we are able to provide for them today.

Sincerely,

Ricardo López, Ed.D.

Ready Hub

Ready Hub is a way for students to access district resources at school and at home.

The URL for Ready Hub is readyhub.garlandisd.net

The Ready Hub username and password are the same ones students use for logging into devices at school.

With Ready Hub, students can login once and go between different apps without logging in and out every time.

Click the desired app. For most apps, simply clicking the Ready Hub icons will automatically log users into the program.

To change programs, leave the Ready Hub tab open in the background.

To close one app and go to another one, logout (usually upper right corner) and click “X” to close the current tab.
